

Chairmans Report May 2023

Co-opted Toni Bradshaw onto the council

Moved our meetings from the Regency Hotel to the BFG

James and Helen reviewed our Internal Control Procedures

The new cycle path is still an area of concern with none of the individual elements yet joined up.

Post repairs to the M5 overbridge at Staverton, with Boddington Parish we have negotiated the resurfacing of the whole of the Boddington road. Work will start in June.

It was very sad to hear of the passing of councillor Phil Awford, who has always supported our parish and was instrumental in helping obtain the 50% cost of the village gates, which have now been installed.

Planning. The owner of Oaklands was prosecuted for breaches of planning conditions and was fined £6k and costs and is required to address the enforcements on site.

Pleased that Shelley has had her baby boy and wish her and her family all the best for the coming year.

And a warm welcome to Rebecca who has taken on the role of Clerk to the council and is doing a sterling job so far.
